1 SUBSTANTIVE_TECHNICAL

When the speaker is not making procedural statements, but also lacks ontological relevance.
"Inflation is bad", "This bill lacks structure"

2 SUBSTANTIVE_IDENTITY

Any substantive speech that is relevant to the purpose of this research.

3 PROCEDURAL

Any procedural speech that is not substantive to the topic. ("Hear, hear", vote counting, etc.)

4 OTHER_ABSTRACT

Non-human threats to identity. Look for: "Globalization," "Modernity," "Secularism," "Chaos."

5 OTHER_INTERNAL

A different ethnic group or political faction within the state. Look for: "The fifth column," "Those who don't share our values," "The extremists in our midst."

6 OTHER_EXTERNAL

A foreign state or global entity (e.g., "The neighbor," "The UN," "Imperialist powers").

7 EXIST_IDENTITY

High-stress language regarding the loss of identity. Look for: "Existential threat," "Survival," "Disappearing," "Death of our culture."

8 MORAL_AGENCY

Framing the actor as a moral leader. Look for: "Our values," "Standard-bearer," "Duty to lead," "Right side of history."

9 ROUTINE_DEF

Defense of established norms or "the way we do things." Look for: "Stability," "Our tradition," "The status quo," "Common sense."

10 HIST_CONT

(Biographical Continuity): References to the past to justify the present. Look for: "Since our founding," "Our ancestors," "1945," "Legacy."

11 COLLECT_MEM

The speaker uses aspects of the collective memory to shape a narrative ("Genocide", "Wars", "Paramilitary").

12 COND_CORRUPT

When the speaker labels another as corrupt or defrauding the state or citizens. "Spent money on cars", "Took bribes"

13 SELF_TRANS

Focuses on a larger collective identity (e.g., "We Europeans," "The Ummah," "The West").

14 SELF_ETHNIC

Focuses on a specific sub-state ethnic or linguistic group (e.g., "Our community," "We as [Group X]").

15 SELF_STATE

Focuses on the country as a whole (e.g., "Our Republic," "This nation").

16 SELF_PARTY

When the speaker refers to "us", "we", etc. regarding his/her party.

17 SELF_GOV

When the speaker refers to the governmental body(bodies) as "us", "we", etc.
